

ESEBO NEWSLETTER OCTOBER 2016

Let's party!

Dancing till you fall, a 3 stars dinner, live music & enjoying at a unlike location: these are the ingredients of our personnel party.

With only one goal: to start the new year with an amazing party.

With your partner or colleagues, full of different acts & animations, an evening with a theme or live music, why not? Everything is possible.

Team Building

The search for a suitable teambuilding or family day is not always a hitch: Most formulas are very similar to each other and finding the ideal concept for your team is not always obvious.

At Esebo we realize well enough that every business is unique. The number of employees, the average educational level, language skills, average age ... are all factors which the HR department should consider when choosing the annual corporate event.

Of course we try with our existing concepts to strive for the best common denominator in order to meet the needs of ...

Last Minute : Saint Nicholas@work

The time of being a child passes fast.

And that is why we must spent that limited time of innocence joyful. And what better way to do that with a grand Saint Nicholas party ?

We take your children and those of your employees and customers to the workshops of the saint. The offer is, as it should be for a holy man, immense. Aside the giant candy, laughing mirrors, a ball-bath, an air filled castle and an obstacle-course the kids can also help the saint in a variety of workshops. In the finger-food shop, the shop of clay and the workshop of sand they learn to make al different kinds of beauty and taste.

At the school of the servants they can learn and graduate to become a good servant of the saint. And all the children can of course come and have a talk with the saint when he sits on his throne. The workshops of the saint can be erected on your own company-grounds or on a location of your choice. The possibilities are unlimited and one thing is certain: ...
